Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in payment for your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a facility directory
- · Contact you for fundraising efforts

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Psychotherapy notes, except to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations as authorized by law

In the case of fundraising:

 We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Provide your treatment

 We can use your health information and share it with our staff or other professionals who are treating you. Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition. We may also share your information to another treatment facility for your continued care after your discharge from this facility.

Run our organization

 We can use and share your health information to run our program, improve your care, and contact you when necessary. Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

Bill for your health services

 We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities. Example: We give information about you to your health insurance plan so it will pay for your services.

Our Uses and Disclosures
